- QA Notes: We have to register the client on GMB. The client is easygoing and agrees to whatever we tell him. He understands what we are saying. He expects results and would need a bit of pampering at times. We charged him $225. We did not commit any miles for the first month. We just would target his base location and gradually increase the miles. The client also asked about the website, for which we quoted $1000. You can pitch him the website in the future.
